As most of us say “good riddance” to 2008, planning for 2009 will make it a better year!

A panel of Industry Experts and fellow NARIGC members will discuss what opportunities are out there to help you and how your peers are “Weathering the Financial Storm”. These won’t be philosophical discussions—they will be hard core, “been there, done that” practical ideas that are being implemented with success in the Chicago market!

Please come and share what works for you and what doesn’t—you will definitely leave with some ideas to help make 2009 a great year!
