Presented by:

Steve Stetson, DSP Safety

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Holiday Inn, 1000 Busse Rd., Elk Grove Village

Learn what's new with OSHA regulations and what they are targeting.

For those of you who attended previous meetings where he has spoken, you know that Steve Stetson of DSP Safety is not your "typical" OSHA presenter.

Steve will join us again on Tuesday, October 13, 2009. He utilizes computer presentations, videos, exercises and graphics to make the information interesting and enjoyable.

Also, join us at 5:00 for the Lutron "Smart to Dim Experience". This 50' RV is designed to engage, educate and inspire customers about Lutron products. The experience brings the concept of dimming to life in every-day home scenes. You will be exposed to Lutron's product line and experience the effect that lighting has on a home's décor.
